- (a) establish committees of the council to perform such functions as the council may determine;
 - (b) appoint persons who are and who are not members of the council as members of council committees;
 - (c) establish, in consultation with the senate, joint committees of the council and the senate to perform such functions as the council and the senate may determine;
 - (d) appoint persons who are and who are not members of the council as members of the joint committees of the council and the senate;
 - (e) terminate the membership of any person it has appointed to any committee;
 - (f) determine the condition of service of the University staff and the disciplinary provisions to which staff shall be subjected;
 - (g) determine, after consultation with the senate and the student representative council, the disciplinary provisions to which students shall be subjected;
 - (h) determine, after consultation with the senate, the academic structures of the University and the status, functions and title of each;
 - (i) provide for the establishment, composition, manner of election, term of office, functions and privileges of the students' representative council, provided that it shall do so having regard to sections 32(2)(c) and 35 of the Act;
 - (j) make institutional rules as provided for in the Act;
 - (k) with the approval of senate, refuse readmission to student who fails to satisfy the minimum requirements for readmission as determined in terms of section 37 of the Act;
 - (l) after consultation with the students' representative council determine fees payable by students for tuition, accommodation and other services provided to students; and
 - (m) approve the annual operating and capital budget of the University.

- (4) The council may delegate or assign any of its powers and functions except those powers and functions provided in section 68 of the Act or specified in subparagraph (5) and provided that the council is not divested of responsibility for the performance of any of power or function so delegated or assigned.
- (5) The council may not delegate any of the following powers or functions -
 - (a) the making, rescinding or amendment of the Statute;
 - (b) the appointment of the vice-chancellor, deputy vice-chancellor or the registrar;
 - (c) the determination of the language policy of the University in terms of section 27 (2) of the Act;
 - (d) the determination of the admission policy of the University in terms of section 37 of the Act;
 - (e) the approval of the annual operating and capital expenditure budget;
 - (f) the adoption of the annual financial statements and annual report;
 - (g) the decision to embark on the construction of a permanent building or other immovable infrastructural development subject to the proviso that approval of the minister is required if the value of such development or property exceeds five per cent of the average income of the University received during the past two years immediately preceding the agreement;
 - (h) the purchase or sale of immovable property; and
 - (i) the letting and leasing of immovable property for a lease agreement that exceed a period of five years.

Composition of council

- 8. (1) The council, as contemplated in section 27 of the Act, consists of not more than 30 members, made up of –
 - (a) the vice-chancellor;
 - (b) not more than one deputy vice-chancellor, designated by the vice- chancellor;
 - (c) five persons appointed by the minister, who may not be employees or students of the University;
 - (d) two members of the senate, elected by the senate;
 - (e) one non-senate academic employee, elected by the academic employees;
 - (f) one non-academic employee, elected by the non-academic employees;
 - (g) two students elected by the students' representative council;
 - (h) two members of the convocation, who may not be employees or students of the University, elected by the convocation;
 - (i) one person with expertise in law, who may not be an employee or student of the University, elected by the council;
 - (j) one person with expertise in financial and investment matters, who may not be an employee or student of the University, elected by the council;
 - (k) two members of organised commerce and industry, who may not be employees or students of the University, elected by the council; and
 - (l) two representatives from the donor community, who may not be employees or students of the University, nominated by the Advancement Advisory Committee.
- (2) Council may, from time to time, in accordance with the institutional rules co-opt one or more experts in the relevant fields who will not have voting rights.

- (3) At least 60 per cent of the members of the council must be persons who are not employees or students of the University; and any person or body electing a member or members to council must take into consideration racial and gender under-representation in council.
- (4) A council member or a member of a committee of council -
 - (a) must be a person with knowledge and experience relevant to the objects and governance of the University;
 - (b) must participate in the deliberations of the council or the committees of council in the best interests of the University;
 - (c) must before he or she assumes office, declare in writing any vested personal, business, commercial or financial interest as contemplated in section 27(7) (c-e) of the Act;
 - (d) may not place himself or herself under any financial or other obligation to any individual or organisation that might seek to influence the performance of any function of the council; and
 - (e)
 - (i) may not have a conflict of interest with the University;
 - (ii) may not have a direct or indirect financial, personal or other interest in any matter to be discussed at a meeting and which entails or may entail a conflict or possible conflict of interest with the University;
 - (iii) must, before the meeting and in writing, inform the chairperson of that meeting of that conflict or possible conflict of interest.
- (5) Except as provided in subparagraphs (1) (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) and (g) –
 - (a) a student or employee of the University or other person in receipt of regular remuneration from the University is not eligible for appointment, or nomination for election, or election as a member of the council; and
 - (b) a member of the council who becomes a student or an employee of the University or who enters into a contract with the University in terms of which he or she is to receive regular remuneration from the University must forthwith vacate his or her seat on the council.
- (6) The manner of appointment or election of members for the offices mentioned in subparagraphs (1) (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) (l) and (m) is provided for in the institutional rules.

Term of office of members of the council

- 9. (1) The term of office of members of the council is four years, except in the case of –
 - (a) members referred to in paragraphs 8(1)(a) and (b), who serve by virtue of their offices and remain members of the council for as long as they occupy their offices;
 - (b) members referred to in paragraphs 8(1)(d), (e), and (f) whose term of office is two years from the date of their election;
 - (c) members referred to in paragraphs 8(1) (h), (i), (j), (k) and (l) whose term of office is four years from the date of their election or appointment;
 - (d) members referred to in paragraph 8(1)(g), elected by the students' representative council, whose term of office is one year from the date of their election, with the proviso that membership ceases automatically when a student member ceases to be a student; and
 - (e) members referred to in paragraph 8(2) whose term of office is three years from the date of their election.

- (2) The membership of a member who is elected from among the ranks of a specific interest group or organisation lapses upon termination of his or her association with that interest group or organisation.
- (3) Any member may serve as a member of the council for a maximum of two consecutive terms, provided that no student may serve as a member of the council for a term exceeding one academic year.
- (4) If a vacancy arises in the council, it is filled in the same manner as the manner in which it was filled originally.
- (5) A new member of the council, appointed or elected in terms of subparagraph (4) to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiry of the term of office concerned, is appointed or elected for the full term of office.

Termination of membership and filling of vacancies

10. (1) A council member or a member of a committee of council's membership terminates if –
 - (a) he or she tenders a written resignation;
 - (b) he or she is absent from three consecutive meetings without leave of the council;
 - (c) he or she is declared insolvent;
 - (d) he or she is removed from an office of trust by a court of law or is convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of the majority of the council renders the member not fit and proper;
 - (e) he or she, in the majority opinion of the council, is seen to be incapacitated;
 - (f) the member of the council who was not an employee or a student of the University is appointed an employee or becomes a student of the University; and
 - (g) the member is removed from office in terms of subparagraph (3).
- (2) In the event of a vacancy through death or otherwise, the secretary to the council notifies the vacancy to the constituency that has appointed or elected such member, requesting such constituency to appoint or elect a successor.
- (3) The council has the power to suspend a member or terminate the council membership of a member if –
 - (a) that member brings the council or the University into disrepute; or
 - (b) it is alleged that the member has engaged or may engage in conduct that brings or may bring the University into disrepute, and at least one-third of the members of the council resolve that the matter must be investigated, by an ad hoc committee of council; or
 - (c) the ad hoc committee finds after due process that the member has failed to act in the best interest of the University or has behaved in a manner that brings or may bring the University into disrepute, and recommends that the member be removed from the council; and
 - (d) the council may by majority of at least two-thirds of the members of the council present at the meeting terminate his or her membership of the council.
- (4) If 75 (seventy five) per cent or more of the members of the council resign, the council is deemed to have resigned, as contemplated in section 27(8) of the Act.
- (5) If the council resigns, as contemplated in subparagraph (4), a new council must be constituted in terms of this Statute.

Chairperson and deputy chairperson of council and their terms of office

11. (1) The chairperson and the deputy chairperson of the council must be elected from the members who are not employees or students of the University.
- (2) (a) The chairperson presides at meetings of the council and the executive committee of the council; and
- (b) The council determines any further functions of the chairperson.
- (3) (a) The deputy chairperson presides at meetings of the council and the executive committee of the council in the absence of the chairperson; and
- (b) The deputy chairperson performs such other functions as the council may determine.
- (4) The chairperson and the deputy chairperson of the council are elected to their respective offices for a period of two years.
- (5) The chairperson and the deputy chairperson are eligible for re-election for a maximum of two consecutive terms.
- (6) Nominations for the office of the chairperson and the deputy chairperson of the council must be in writing and be directed to the secretary to the council.
- (7) If more than one candidate is nominated, voting is by secret ballot.
- (8) Each member of the council has only one vote during a ballot and no proxy is allowed.
- (9) A majority of all members present elects the chairperson and the deputy chairperson.
- (10) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of the chairperson or the deputy chairperson, the provisions of subparagraph (6) to (9) apply, with the necessary changes, to the filling of such vacancy.
- (11) A person who fills a vacancy in terms of subparagraph (10) holds office until the end of the predecessor's term.

Secretary of council

12. (1) The secretary of council is the registrar, who ensures compliance with the Statute, relevant legislation and national higher education and training policies, as well as the policies and institutional rules of the University.
- (2) The registrar may participate in the discussions of the council but may not vote.
- (3) The secretary acts as an electoral officer in all matters pertaining to council.
- (4) The secretary attends all meetings and keeps all relevant documents of the council.
- (5) The registrar may designate an employee of the University to assist him or her.

Meetings of the council

13. (1) The council has at least three ordinary meetings during each academic year.
- (2) Notice of any motion for consideration at the next ordinary meeting must be in writing and must be lodged with the secretary at least 21 days before the date determined by the council for such meeting, provided that any matter of an urgent nature may, without prior notice, by consent of the chairperson and a majority of the members present, be considered at such meeting.
- (3) At least 14 days prior to the date of an ordinary meeting, the secretary gives due notice to each member of all the matters to be dealt with at such meeting and states the time and place of such meeting.

- (4) A special meeting may be called at any time by the chairperson, provided that at least seven days' notice of a special meeting is given, and further provided that the chairperson or, in his or her absence the vice-chancellor, may reduce the period of notice to twenty four hours if circumstances require, in which instance notice may be given in any manner convenient under the circumstances.
- (5) The chairperson must call a special meeting at the written request of at least five members, the objective of such meeting clearly stated in the request.
- (6) No business other than that which the special meeting was called for may be transacted at such meeting, irrespective of the notice period.

Council meeting procedures

14. (1) A member who has a conflict of interest in relation to any matter on the agenda for a meeting of council or a committee of council must inform the chairperson of the meeting, in writing, before or at the start of the meeting, and must recuse himself or herself from the meeting during the discussion of the matter and the voting thereon.
- (2) Any person who believes that a member of council or a committee of council has a conflict of interest in regard to any matter on the agenda of a meeting may, in writing, before the meeting, inform the chairperson of a meeting that he or she believes that a conflict of interest exists in regard to that member, in which case the chairperson must raise this with the member who has a conflict of interest in relation to a matter on the agenda and table the matter for discussion in the meeting.
- (3) The council or committee of council shall exclude a member from being part of a meeting if council or the committee of council is of the view that the member has a conflict of interest in relation to any matter on the agenda.
- (4) The quorum required for a meeting of council or a committee of council to be properly convened, is that at least one half plus one (50% plus one) of the total number of members of the council or committee holding office on the date of such meeting are present at the start of the meeting, and further in regard to the council meeting provided that a majority of the members present at the start of the meeting are persons who are not employees or students of the University.
- (5) Where a meeting of the council or committee of council is called in the manner this Statute requires, and there is no quorum, the chairperson must adjourn the meeting to a date within fourteen days and require the registrar to give notice of at least seven days of the time and venue of the adjourned meeting to all members of the body concerned and if this is done, the members present at the start of the adjourned meeting constitute a quorum, despite any provision to the contrary.
- (6) Non-voting members of the council co-opted in terms of paragraph 8(2) shall not be counted as part of the members of the council for the purposes of determining a quorum.
- (7) A properly convened meeting of council or a committee is not voided if a sufficient number of members end their participation in the meeting in any way after the meeting has started, thereby leaving the meeting without a quorum and the meeting may proceed with and conclude its business.
- (8) Except where otherwise provided in this Statute, all acts or matters authorised or required to be done or decided by the council or its committees and all questions that may come before it are done or decided by the majority of the members present at the meeting.

- (9) In the absence of the chairperson and the deputy chairperson of the council, the members present elect one of their members to preside at such meeting, provided that the person chosen to preside is not an employee or student of the university.
- (10) The first act of an ordinary meeting, after being constituted, is to consider and if approved, confirm by the signature of the chairperson the minutes of the last preceding ordinary meeting and any special meeting subsequently held, provided that the meeting consider the minutes as read if a copy thereof was previously sent to every member of the council.
- (11) A member of the council may not, without the consent of the chairperson, speak more than once to a motion or to any amendment, though the mover of any motion or any amendment has the right to reply.
- (12) Every motion or amendment must be seconded and, if so directed by the chairperson, must be in writing.
- (13) A motion or an amendment seconded as contemplated in subparagraph (12), may not be withdrawn except with the consent of the meeting.
- (14) The chairperson has, on any matter, a deliberative vote and may also exercise, in the event of an equality of votes, a casting vote.
- (15) If so decided by the meeting, the number of members voting for or against any motion must be recorded in the minutes, and at the request of any member the chairperson must direct that the vote of such member be likewise recorded.
- (16) The council may, if necessary, take decisions only on urgent matters by means of a round robin, inviting members of council or committee of council, as approved by the respective chairperson of council or committee of council, to express their views or votes on a specific urgent matter by means of electronic communication, provided that -
 - (a) at least 75% of the members of council in office at that time are in favour of such a decision;
 - (b) the majority of the 75% of the members who are in favour of the decision are external members of council; and
 - (c) the decision taken must be ratified by council in the next ordinary meeting.
- (17) The views of a member of the council who is unable to attend a meeting may be submitted to the meeting in writing but may not count as a vote of such member.
- (18) A point of order may be raised when a member is of the opinion that -
 - (a) there is a deviation from the matter under discussion;
 - (b) a member uses insulting or repulsive language; or
 - (c) discussions are contrary to procedural rules.
- (19) The ruling of the chairperson on a point of order or procedure is binding unless immediately challenged by a member, in which event such ruling must be submitted without discussion to the meeting, whose decision is final.

Register of interest

- 15. The secretary to the council shall maintain a register in which the annual declaration of interests of each member of the council, council committees and all functionaries of the council and their relatives and spouses are recorded.

Executive and other committees of council

16. (1) The council appoints –
- (a) an executive committee;
 - (b) an audit and risk committee;
 - (c) a finance committee;
 - (d) a remuneration committee;
 - (e) an employment conditions committee;
 - (f) a planning and resource committee;
 - (g) a governance and council membership committee; and
 - (h) such other committees and sub-committees as may be required.
- (2) The council may, if it deems fit, combine any two or more of the committees contemplated in sub-paragraph (1) and may for this purpose deem a single person to be a committee.
- (3) The composition and functions of each committee are determined by the council in the institutional rules.
- (4) A majority of the members of a council committee must be persons who are not employees or students of the University.
- (5) The chairperson of a committee may not be an employee or a student of the University.
- (6) The meeting procedures in paragraph 14 apply, with the necessary changes, to meetings of committees of the council, provided that a committee of the council with delegated functions may not take a decision on a matter considered by it if any member of the committee has a conflict of interest in relation to that matter.

Minutes of council and committee meetings

17. The secretary to the council keeps the minutes of each meeting of the council and includes such minutes in the agenda of the next council ordinary meeting when the agenda is sent out in terms of paragraph 13(3).

SENATEFunctions of the senate

18. (1) Subject to the Act, the senate is accountable to the council for all the teaching, learning, research, community engagement and academic functions of the University and all other functions delegated or assigned to it by the council.

49. (1) The convocation consists of the vice-chancellor, the deputy vice-chancellors, the registrar, academic employees, as set out in subparagraph (2), and all persons who are or become graduates or diplomates of the University or the University's predecessors and such other persons as the council may determine.
- (2) Academic employees on the permanent staff of the University, professors emeriti and other retired academic employees who were employed by the University for at least five years prior to retirement, are members of the convocation.
- (3) The fact that the name of a person appears on the convocation roll is, on face value, proof of him or her being a member of the convocation, and of him or her being entitled to vote.
- (4) The names of new graduates and diplomates of the University are deemed to have been inscribed in the convocation roll after degrees have been conferred or diplomas have been awarded, but members so registered are required to furnish their addresses to the secretary and to notify him or her of any change of address.
- (5) For the purpose of the election of council members, the convocation is deemed closed from the last date on which ballot papers are issued until the date of the election, both days inclusive.

Office-bearers and committees of convocation

50. (1) The convocation, at its first meeting, elects from among its members a president to act as chairperson at all its meetings, who holds office for a period of three years from the date of the meeting at which he or she is elected.
- (2) Whenever the office of president becomes vacant, the vice-chancellor acts as president until a successor is elected for a period of three years, at the next meeting of the convocation.
- (3) The convocation establishes an executive committee and such other committees as it may deem necessary to perform its functions.

- (4) The executive committee of the convocation is composed of the president, deputy-president and treasurer, elected by the convocation, the vice-chancellor (ex officio) and the registrar, who is the secretary of the convocation.
- (5) The executive committee has the right of co-option, and meets at least once per annum.

Meetings of convocation

51. (1) The president, or if the office of the president is vacant, the vice-chancellor, may convene a meeting of the convocation annually or as often as required, and notice of such meeting must be given at least four weeks prior to the date of the meeting, by any means reasonably available, including electronic means.
- (2) A member who wishes to raise any matter at such meeting must submit a written motion with regard to the said matter to the registrar or the president at least two weeks before the date of the meeting.
 - (3) An extraordinary meeting of the convocation may be convened by the president or the vice-chancellor if and when required.
 - (4) An extraordinary meeting of the convocation must be convened by the president or, if the office of president is vacant, by the vice-chancellor, upon a written request signed by at least 25 members containing the matters for consideration in the form of separate motions.
 - (5) An extraordinary meeting as contemplated in subparagraph (4), must be held within two months after receipt of the request.

Meeting procedures of convocation

52. (1) Fifty members constitute a quorum at a meeting of the convocation, provided that, if no quorum is present, the meeting may adjourn and an extraordinary meeting may be convened with at least seven days' notice, at which the members present constitute a quorum.
- (2) Notwithstanding the absence of a quorum at the start of an annual meeting, such meeting may proceed to elect office bearers and to dispose of other formal matters, but no motions may be submitted at such meeting.
 - (3) After its constitution, by reading the notice in terms of which it was convened, a meeting commences with the reading and confirmation, by the signature of the chairperson, of the minutes of the previous ordinary meeting and of all subsequent extraordinary meetings.
 - (4) Any objection to such minutes must be raised and determined prior to their confirmation.
 - (5) A member may not, without the permission of the meeting, speak more than once on a motion or amendment thereof, but the mover of the motion or amendment may reply.
 - (6) All matters are decided by a majority of the members present.
 - (7) In addition to his or her ordinary vote, the chairperson has a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.
 - (8) If a meeting so resolves, the number of votes in favour of or against a motion must be recorded in the minutes, and, at the request of a member, the chairperson must further direct that the vote of such member be likewise recorded.
 - (9) A motion or amendment thereof must be seconded, and if the chairperson directs, such motion or amendment must be in writing.

- (10) A motion or amendment may not be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.
- (11) The chairperson may permit the discussion of a matter of which notice was not duly given, provided such discussion is unopposed.
- (12) The ruling of the chairperson on a point of order of procedure is binding, unless immediately challenged by a member, in which event such ruling must be submitted without discussion to the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (13) A copy of the resolutions of the convocation, and a statement on such other matters as the convocation may determine, duly certified by the chairperson and secretary, are submitted to the chairperson of the council for the information of the council and to the vice-chancellor for the information of the senate.
- (14) The election of members of the convocation to the council is in the manner as determined in the Institutional Rules.
